

Dear Students,

Notice of necessary documents for the Second Semester of AY 2023 from students who significant decrease in income due to effects of COVID-19

If it occurs that significant decrease in students' income due to the effects of COVID-19, there is a possibility to consider the decreased income in a screening of tuition exemption. The details are as follows.

1. Qualification

Students who fulfill one of the following conditions;

[Students who are independent of their parents / International student]

- ① Student or whose spouse loses his/her job due to COVID-19
- ② Student whose income is decreased due to COVID-19 *

[Japanese students who depend on their parents for income]

- ① Student whose parent or parents died from COVID-19
- ② Student whose parent or parents take a leave of absence over half a year due to COVID-19
- ③ Student whose parent or parents lose their job due to COVID-19
- ④ Student whose family total income is decreased due to COVID-19 except for the above reasons ① to ③ *

* Excluding decrease of remittances from his / her family.

2. Necessary documents

- ① Attached Form
- ② Certificate documents that are specified in the attached form

Currently, student must submit ① and ② with documents of tuition exemption to each institute by the specified date. Newly student must submit ① and ② with documents of tuition exemption to SOKENDAI Hayama office by September 20, 2023.

問合先/Enquiries:

総合研究大学院大学学務課学生係

Student Affairs Section, SOKENDAI

Email: gakusei@ml.soken.ac.jp