

Attachment 2

Schedule of the Selection Process for University President

July 7, 2025

SOKENDAI President Nomination Committee

As the term of the current university president will end on March 31, 2026, the following procedure will take place to select candidates for the next president.

1. Nomination and open recruitment of candidates

(1) Nomination and open recruitment of candidates begins on July 14, 2025 (Monday)

The President Nomination Committee mails nomination requests to people associated with the university and posts details about the open recruitment on the university's website

(Recipients of Nomination Requests) ① President Nomination Committee Members ② Inter-University Research Institutes ③ Committees of Full-Time Research Institute Staff

④ Committees of Full-Time Administration Bureau Staff ⑤ Directors, Assigned Faculty Members, Research Institute Staff, and Administration Bureau Staff

(2) The nomination and recruitment period is between July 14, 2025 (Monday) and September 1, 2025 (Monday)

(3) Required documentation

The nominee's personal history, academic and research achievements, the reason they are being nominated, their consent form, and their hopes for the future of

SOKENDAI

2. Schedule and selection process

○ Fourth Meeting of the President Nomination Committee

September 19, 2025 (Friday) from 10:00 to 12:00 (at a venue within Tokyo)

- Decision for the first round of president candidates

Based on the documentation and the nomination reasons provided by the nominators, the nominees are reviewed to ensure that they meet the selection criteria (the qualifications and abilities needed by the president) as stipulated by the President Nomination Committee, then the first round of president candidates is determined.

- Announcement of the selection process for the first round of president candidates

The selection process for the first round of president candidates is announced.

○ Fifth Meeting of the President Nomination Committee

October 9, 2025 (Thursday) from 10:00 to 12:00 (at a venue within Tokyo)

[Alternate Date] October 24, 2025 (Friday) from 13:00 to 17:00 (at a venue within Tokyo)

- Decision for the second round of president candidates

The personal histories and academic and research achievements of the first round of candidates are reviewed and the opinions of the candidates themselves are heard, after which the second round of candidates is determined.

- Announcement of the selection process for the second round of president candidates

The selection process for the second round of president candidates is announced.

○ Sixth Meeting of the President Nomination Committee

October 27, 2025 (Monday)

- Selection and announcement of the university president

After discussion by the members of the President Nomination Committee, a single candidate is selected through a voting process, and that individual's name is announced along with the details of the selection process and the reason why they were selected.

3. The new university president assumes their role (appointed by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science, and Technology) (April 1, 2026)